

EuroFM Education
Criteria EuroFM Student Competition
Virtual Conference 28 October 2022

The EuroFM Student Competition recognizes the value of sharing bright ideas, knowledge, insights and research findings created as part of Facility Management programs in European Universities. We ask students of both Master and Bachelor programs to share this with EuroFM and her members, by creating a 3-5minute film clip. This film clip must present findings as result of a assignment, internship or small project.

Proposed topics are – the Energy Crisis; Sustainable FM, Digital FM; Ethics in managing facilities; Soft skills in FM; ISO standards, the “new normal”

Eligibility

Registered students or recent graduates of relevant Master and Bachelor programs in European Universities who are members of EuroFM. The student must be nominated by their lecturer or course leader and registered as a EuroFM member. If not a member or for questions regarding the procedure or requirements please contact EuroFM at bginter@eurofm.org.

As a participant please send the necessary information (the filled in entry form by the lecturer or course leader) to: bginter@eurofm.org.

Criteria

We ask students to share their findings in a film clip or vlog to be presented at the virtual EuroFM Student Festival on October 28, 2022. Film clips must clearly communicate the purpose, content and quality of research findings. Not only to inspire the public, moreover to create a maximum impact in the field of Facility Management!

Film clips last a maximum of 5 minutes, are English spoken and subtitled and contain copyright free images and/or music.

Main criteria:

- Design (clear message, exciting, creative, language use)
- Content (knowledge, support of findings)
- FM added value (innovative, impact, inspiring, future-oriented)
